

Dragons Experience Technical Difficulties

The DuPage Dragons would like to apologize to fans who tried to listen in to the weekend broadcasts. Due to technical difficulties, we were unable to get our broadcasts on the air. We are working hard to fix the problems, and look to return to the airwaves tonight, for our broadcast of the Danville Dans and your DuPage Dragons. Gametime is scheduled for 7:05 pm. To listen in, go to our webpage (www.dupagedragons.com) and click on the radio microphone.
